

MASTER IN EUROPEAN INTEGRATION at the University of Belgrade Faculty of Law

We would like to inform You that the University of Belgrade Faculty of Law is announcing the enrollment for the twelfth generation of the master students in the Master's Academic Program - MASTER IN EUROPEAN INTEGRATION, Academic year 2019/2020.

This master program has been granted with the National academic accreditation and can enroll up to 60 students each academic year for one year lasting MEI- 60 ECTS, and up to 10 students for two years lasting MEI-120 ECTS. The official language of the program is English. The program is also open to foreign students, and we had already enrolled students from more than 25 countries.

The eligibility requirements for the one year MEI (60 ECTS) are a Bachelor's Degree, with at least 240 ECTS, from the law faculty or social sciences-humanities.

The eligibility requirements for the two year MEI 120 ECTS are a Bachelor Degree, with at least 180 ECTS, from the law faculty or social sciences-humanities.

After successful completion of MEI 60 ECTS or MEI 120 ECTS, a student acquires the master degree: Master of Laws in European Integration.

Candidates from social sciences-humanities have an additional requirement of preliminary registration for MEI and must pass the differential exams.

International students who intend to enroll at MEI must complete the procedure of diploma recognition before an official enrollment.

Students must attend three mandatory/introductory courses – Introduction to the Economic System of the EU, Introduction to the Political System of the EU, Introduction to the Legal System of the EU, as well as the Practical skills course. Additionally, students opt for three courses among seventeen offered courses. Each student also has an obligation to write and defend master thesis.
