LL.M. PROGRAMME in INTERNATIONAL & EUROPEAN LAW 2021-2022

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

During the academic year 2021-2022, the Law School of National and Kapodistrian University of Athens will offer an intensive LL.M. Programme in International & European Law. Interested candidates are invited to submit their application as follows:

Description:

The LL.M. Programme in International and European Law provides students with an in-depth understanding of International and European Union Law in both their theoretical and practical aspects and leads to a postgraduate degree with a specialization in:

- a) Public International Law, or
- b) European Union Law.

The course work is divided into two semesters (winter and spring), and students are obliged to submit a dissertation by 30 September 2022. A maximum of twenty-five (25) students per specialization will be admitted.

Eligibility requirements:

To be eligible for admission, prospective students must:

- a) hold a first Degree in Law

Non-Greek degrees must be duly accredited by the Greek NARIC – DOATAP: for further information see: www.doatap.gr

Non-Law degrees may be exceptionally accepted, if the Steering Committee is satisfied that they included coursework in relevant subjects.

- b) hold at least a C1 level certificate in English.

Candidates with a degree entirely taught in English are exempted. Knowledge of additional languages is encouraged and taken into consideration.

Students expected to graduate by the end of the current academic year 2020-2021 are also eligible to apply.

Selection procedure:

A maximum of twenty-five (25) students per specialization will be admitted.

The Admissions Committee will assess the applications on the basis of each candidate's academic merits.

Prospective students will be invited to an interview in person or virtually.

Only candidates who meet the admission requirements will be invited to the interview.

Tuition fees:

The annual tuition fee amounts to €4800,- payable in two instalments.

How to apply:

Each applicant is invited to fill in the Application form and submit it with all relevant documentation to protocol@law.uoa.gr

Applications from Greek citizens are exclusively submitted through the electronic portal: <https://eprotoکل.uoa.gr> (login through taxisnet required).

Additional information and a list of the documentation required is available on the website of the LL.M. Programme: <https://llm-inteurl.law.uoa.gr> and the website of the Athens Law School: law.uoa.gr

Application period: 22 June – 23 July 2021

Results will be communicated on an individual basis.
